

The Call & Process

Hopelessness

At one time we were all lost and without hope in the world, condemned to a life separate from God. (See Ephesians 2:12; Romans 2:5, 3:23; 2 Thessalonians. 1:8)

Sacrifice

Jesus came to this earth to be the atonement for our sins. Through Him our sins are covered, once and for all, by His costly, bloody, sacrificial death. He who knew no sin was made to be sin for us so that we could be made the righteousness of God. (See John 1:36; Hebrews 9:22–26, 10:12; 1 John 3:4,5; 2 Corinthians 5:21)

Salvation

Salvation is a gift from our Creator. It enables us to have fellowship with Him. There is nothing we can do to earn it; we can only receive it and accept it. No amount of obedience makes us fairer in His sight. We were chosen in Him before the foundation of the world. (See Ephesians 1:4, 2:8–9; Galatians 3:11; Romans 2:4; Mark 2:17; James 2:22; Matthew 3:8; 1 John 3:6)

Sanctification

When we finally understand Jesus' work on our behalf, the only work left for us to do is to repent of our sinful ways and to walk in newness of life: His life lived through us. The fruit of receiving Jesus' atoning sacrifice is the freedom to live a life of holiness! We are not called only to believe, but to act on that belief. This means repenting from our sinful ways and allowing our Father to work in us. His work in us is manifest as we live out His perfect Torah and walk in His righteous commands. Those commands train us and remind us to love God and one another. Every truly redeemed individual is meant to produce the fruit of repentance and righteousness. (See Ephesians 1:7; Romans 8:2, 10:4; Matthew 22:37–40; Luke 24:27; Titus 2:14; 1 John 5:3)

Light

The Bible tells us that the result of obeying the Torah of Liberty and living holy lives is that unredeemed people can see the light of Jesus in our lives and may be drawn into covenant relationship with God. They will see Jesus in us, and want Him too. That's a big part of what it means to bring Glory to God. (See John 8:12; Acts 13:47; Matthew 5:14; 2 Corinthians 4:6; Psalms 119:35; James 1:25; Galatians 5:1)
